

GOA

RANDOM TESTING PROTOCOL -

Goa was one of the first states to put random testing protocols in place to check people entering the state for potential COVID related symptoms. Testing kiosks were set up in various places across the state, especially at the borders and on industrial estates.