

NAGALAND

COVID-19 WAR ROOM -

A COVID-19 War Room was set up under the chairmanship of the Chief Secretary comprising around 20 officials from various departments to monitor situations related to the outbreak. The team oversaw health related activities, facilitating the provision of essential commodities to citizens during the lockdown period, ensuring the welfare of daily wage earners and stranded people along with identifying good practices for containing and managing the pandemic.