

DELHI

BIOMEDICAL WASTE -

Biomedical waste is collected from the doorstep of quarantined households in yellow bags by trained workers in protective gear. One vehicle is deployed in every zone to collect waste, which is then transported to the waste-to-energy plant in Okhla for proper disposal.